FIRESHOE PRODUCTIONS is an innovative and award-winning company that specializes in the production and distribution of high-quality motion pictures, commercials, and multi-media projects. With a talented team of players, we have a strong balance between creative thinking and professional production experience.

We focus on quality during all stages of production. For us, it is about our commitment to our clients to do our best work on every project. We achieve great results by requiring a lot of ourselves and having fun throughout the process.

COMMERCIALS

We work with companies and individuals to bring creative ideas to reality. With marketing firms and agencies, we can act as a silent partner to make the firm or agency appear as if they have their own in-house production studio. We work hard to deliver amazing results for you and your client that promote your message effectively.

WEB, CORPORATE, & MORE

We also produce web, marketing, sales, training, corporate, and many other types of videos. If you can dream it, we can shoot it.

MOVIES & TV

We work with producers and production companies to co-produce projects on many different levels. We are always looking for new partnerships and investors that allow us to collaborate and create quality entertainment.

FREE CONSULTATION

We would love to sit down with you and discuss your production needs. We are a full-service company. This means that we can handle every aspect from script to screen, or we can simply complete the specific elements that you require, such as casting, audio/voice-over, equipment rental, writing, directing, etc.

We can adapt to most budgets. Every project is different, and we work with you to achieve your goals. We want to be your partner in production!
